

The PTA Special Needs Committee
Presents

Food For All:
Food Allergies Within Our Schools

- Learn what is happening in our schools and community to accommodate the rising numbers of children with food allergies
- Looking beyond the peanut-free table to the many other life-threatening allergens and the need for more education
- How can we all work together with a spirit of inclusion?

Wednesday, September 26, 2012

7:00 to 9:00 PM

Iron Horse Middle School MPR

12601 Alcosta Blvd., San Ramon, CA 94583

Join our panel who will share tips, insights, and humor about living and working with food allergies. The panel consists of:

- parent veterans
- a principal, district nurse, and middle school counselor
- Dr. Matthew Lodewick MD, a local allergist / immunologist
- Kyle Dine, a food allergy musician who lives with severe food allergies and travels the country entertaining and educating school children

Facilitated by Todd Gary, Special Needs Liaison for the SRVU School District.

Register to attend by visiting <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0D4EA5AB2FAB9-food>.
Or visit www.signupgenius.com and search for the appropriate Special Needs event by entering svspecialneeds@gmail.com in the email field.

If you have any questions, please contact svspecialneeds@gmail.com.

For more information about the Special Needs Committee, local resources, and helpful information, visit www.srvcpta-ca.schoolloop.com, select Programs, select Special Needs.